Wilson Gaining Fast.

(New York Herald, Hughes Supporter.)

With election day just fifteen days off, the Presidential tide is drifting toward President Wilson.

Mr. Hughes has made slight gains in states which are normally Republican but which are this year in doubt.

The President has made gains in States which are ordinarily Republican but which this year are not only in doubt but are likely to decide the election.

The states in which Mr. Hughes, in the Herald's straw votes, has made gains are New York (up-state), Connecticut, Massachusetts, Idaho, Montana, New Jersey and South Dakota.

The states in which the President has made gains are Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio, Wisconsin, Washington, and West Virginia.

As was first noted in the Herald on September 24, it is a neck and neck race for the Presidency.

Mr. Hughes has had the lead because of the normal strength of the Republican party in the amalgamation of the progressives with the Republicans.

But he has been losing. He is much weaker than his party.

President Wilson has been gaining. He is much stronger than his party. The two are now practically tied for the lead.

Using as a basis the old-time strength of the Republican party and the comparative vote of Messrs. Taft and Roosevelt with that of Mr. Wilson, it was necessary at the outset of the canvass for the Democrats to make huge gains to give them what would approximate an even start with their political rivals.

But they have, from all that appears in the straw vote, made these gains and are now on what amounts to an even footing with the Republicans.

Child's Horrible Death.

Wilkesboro Patriot.
A small child of Mr. Walter Smoot of Edwards township fell into a tub of boiling water that was being used to scald hogs and was scalded to death. Those who were nearby were powerless to prevent the terrible accident or to rescue the child in time to save its life.

Ford Will Pay Women Same As Men.

Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, announced after a conference with President Wilson Tuesday that as the result of an "inspiring talk" he had with the President two weeks ago, he had established the women workers in his plant upon the same pay basis as the men.

Mr. Ford authorized the following statement:

"I had the pleasure to inform President Wilson this afternoon that I had established the women workers of my plant at Detroit and in the branch factories in other cities upon a pay equality with the men workers. I took this step following my conference with the President more than two weeks ago and I did so because of the inspiring talk I had with Mr. Wilson on the forward movement among womankind. This principle is now in operation and I look forward with complete confidence to its vindication."

"On Wilson Band Wagon."

Mr. Ford went to Shadow Lawn to show the President advertisements supporting the Wilson administration which he plans to have published prior to the election. When he stepped off the train and was asked why he came to Shadow Lawn he replied: "To get on the Wilson band wagon."

HOGWALLOW NEWS

Dunk Botts, Regular Correspondent.

The sun seems to be pretty regular in its daily movements. Luke Matthews says he has been living here high on to seventy years and it has not missed a single morning yet.

Frisby Hancock is suffering from a sprained wrist. While winding his clock yesterday the crank hanger back-fired on him. He had just finished reading a piece about an automobile.

The Postmaster says some of the handwriting on the letters is so bad he expects he will have to wash the windows again.

A supper will be given Monday night at the home of Jefferson Potlocks to raise money to buy some benches for the Hog Ford church. In the meantime the congregation will please remain standing.

Several from here will go to Tickville tonight to attend an oyster supper. It will be given by the ladies of the Tickville Methodist church to raise money to defray the expenses of the pastor's wife in entertaining a number of her select society friends next Wednesday evening.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band has decided to support both Wilson and Hughes and are after the contract to furnish music on the night of the election.

Fit Smith climbed into his chimney Monday to uncork it for the winter and got fastened; could not get up or down, and as a last resort his wife built a fire from dog hair, in the fireplace and smoked him out.

Miss Fruzelle Allsop is looking paler this week. It is said to be caused by her having administered an overdose of chalk with matrimonial intent.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band took supper with Ellick Hellwanger Monday night. They are trying to get him to pay up his dues.

A dawg fight attracted a lot of attention and broke up a conversation at the Hog Ford Moonshine still house the other day. One of the dogs belonged to Poke Eazley and the other to Jefferson Potlocks, and the difficulty came up over some misunderstanding between their owners.

Tobe Moseley's mule is able to walk around again after being propped up against a persimmon tree for several days.

Fletcher Henstap's geese are being fattened for Christmas, and have been turned loose in the Musket Ridge corn patches.

Miss Hostetter Hocks has pulled off her plain gold band ring, as it is not stylish to wear much now.

The mule rode by Yam Sims was seen hitched for several hours at the fence in front of the home of the Calf Ribs neighborhood Sunday evening. Yam is so slow he should put his mule on the pasture when he goes courting.

An increased attendance is expected at the Hog Ford church next Sunday as the preacher is going to try out a new sermon.

Slim Pickens has received through the mails a bottle of dandruff cure, and he is taking two teaspoonfuls after each meal.

The Dog Hill preacher has condemned the Musket Ridge Moonshine still house and says it should be torn down. Ellick Hellwanger says he will have a big job tearing it down by himself.

Married By Telegraph.

Laredo (Tex.) Dispatch, Oct. 24.

Over twelve hundred miles of telegraph wire, and performed through proxies in the persons of two telegraph operators, Private Byron J. Linhart, B Company, Second Missouri Infantry, stationed here, and Miss Ruby Swartz, in her home town of Butler, Mo., were married tonight according to the rites of the Episcopal church. Preliminary to the wedding the officiating clergyman in Laredo and Butler entered into a telegraphic conversation to ascertain the official standing of each other in the church and their authority to perform the ceremony. The telegraph operators handled the messages direct between Laredo and Butler, embodying the full marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church, wherein both bride and groom signified their acceptance of each other as life partners.

Henry Ford, as the result of an "inspiring" talk by President Wilson on the forward movement among womankind, has placed the women workers in his factory on the same pay basis as the men. He made announcement of this move Tuesday at Shadow Lawn, where he said he had come to get on the "Wilson band wagon." He also asked permission from the President to print advertisements for his re-election just prior to the election.

Thousands of letters, each containing ten cents are pouring into the Minneapolis, Minn., postoffice daily from women all over the country, who have joined an "endless" chain scheme promoted by the so-called National Brokerage Exchange. Federal officers are searching for the officers of the "exchange", who are wanted for using the mails to defraud. A room in a business block, to which the letters are addressed, was vacated recently. The exchange promised every woman who would send a dime and urge five friends to join the chain, would receive a "new 1917 model silk petticoat."
